Dedication

Charles Paul Conn

In appreciation for his five years as faculty sponsor of the yearbook we dedicate the 1977 VINDAGUA to Dr. Charles Paul Conn. We are especially grateful for his support during this, his fifth and final year as sponsor. Without the contribution of his knowledge and experience, his many hours of hard work and his great concern, this edition of the VINDAGUA could not have been produced.

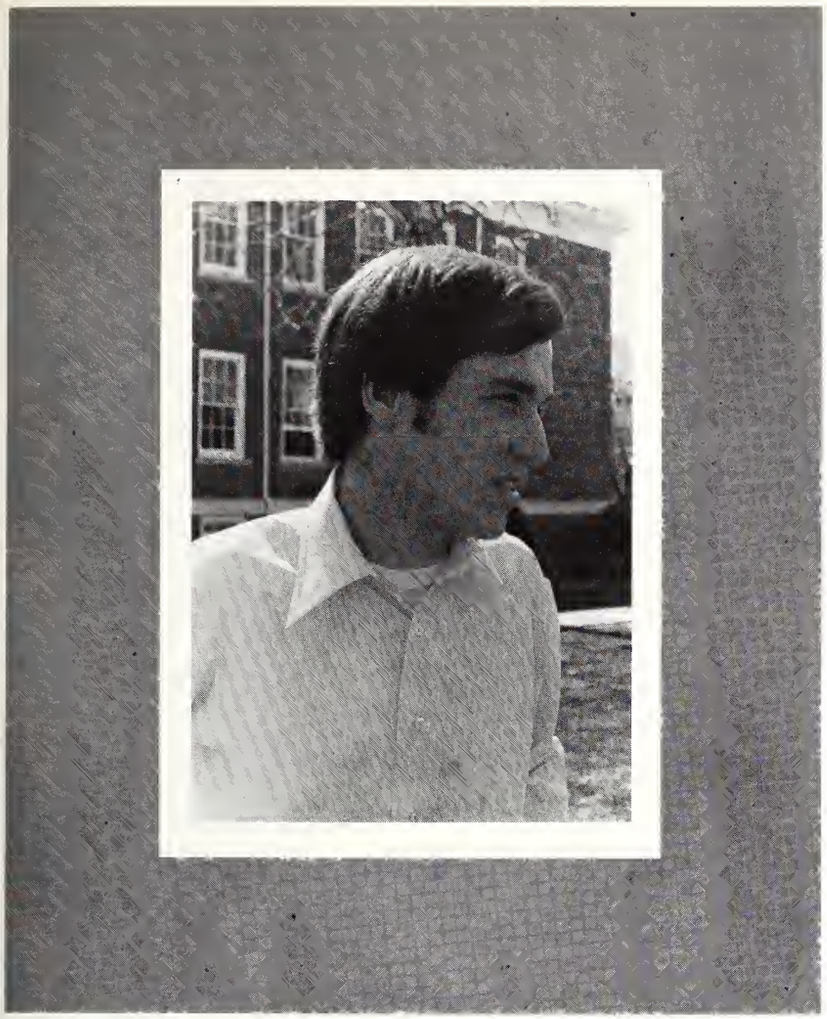
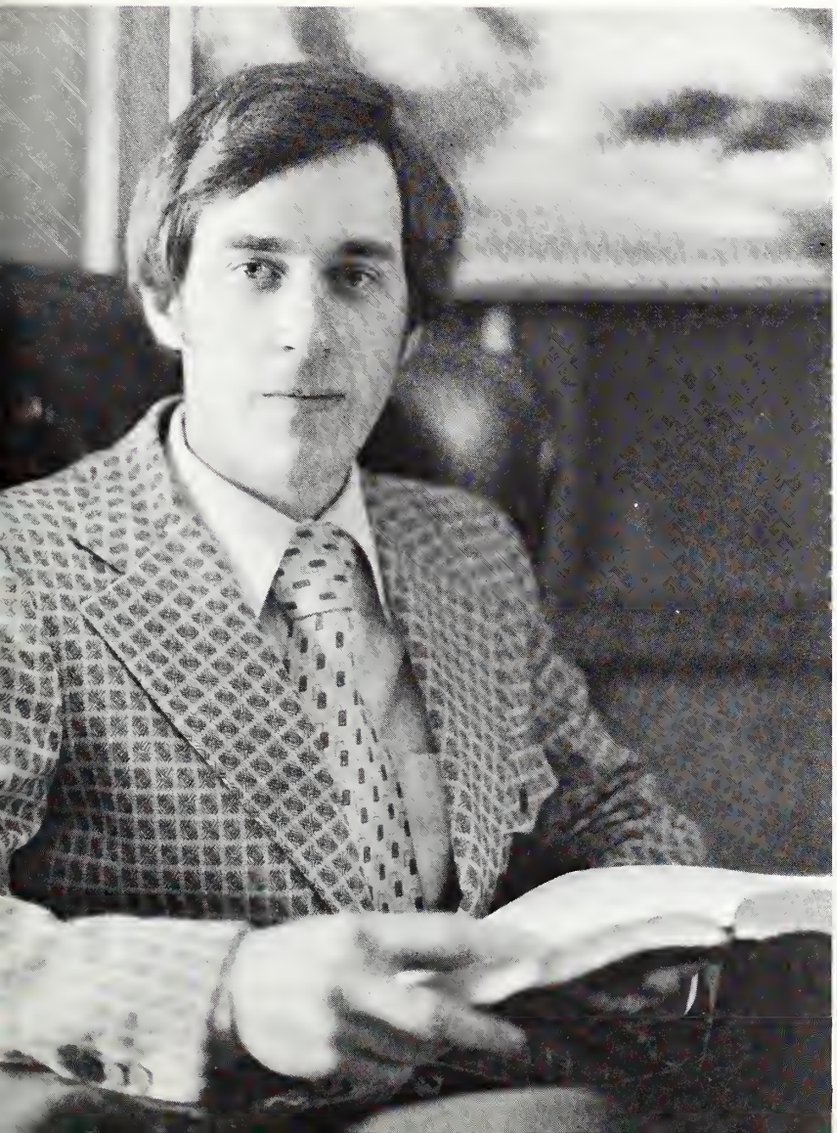
Dani Allred Chosen for F. J. Lee Award

The 1977 recipient of the F. J. Lee Award was Dani Allred. Awarded to the most outstanding graduating senior, this honor was initiated in 1968, and is determined each year by the Lee College faculty. Dani, a history major from Natchez, Mississippi, was also selected for Who's Who. Displaying academic excellence throughout her academic career at Lee, she graduated one semester early in December of 1976. That same semester she was editor of the CLARION. Both her junior and senior years were spent in active roles in the Lee College Student Government Association.



Keith Munford Recipient of Tharp Award



Keith Munford has been named as the 1977 winner of the Tharp Award, which is the most esteemed honor directly associated with the Church of God. Chosen by the faculty the award states that this particular senior is most likely to make the greatest contribution from his graduating class to the church. Although Keith has been gifted with intelligence, his multiple activities have revealed his unique motivation which every great worker of God must possess. A Biblical education major, Keith also pastored Sunshiners Chapel and was president of Upsilon Xi. Along with this award, Keith was selected to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

Seniors Merit

At the end of each year the faculty within each department looks at the graduating class and reflects upon certain individuals—their diligence and their desire for academic excellence. Through careful consideration, the faculty attempts to name the outstanding senior in each department; subsequently, the names are submitted to the Academic Council for confirmation.

Congratulations go to those seniors who have earnestly worked during their academic career. The Departmental Award winners did not sacrifice many sleepless nights of study to be honored, but it was because of his love for learning that he stayed in while others were out—and for this very reason, honors followed.

Pi Delta Omicron

The continuing duty of the believer is to develop his Christian character. Pi Delta Omicron accurately believes that through the promotion of academic excellence, cultivation of responsibility, and the fosterage of brotherly fellowship, this duty can be realized. The Greek letters represent the words "pastor, teacher, and steward." Every Christian is characterized by at least one of these titles and, therefore, should have a fuller understanding of the lofty ideals which Christ has directed him to strive for.

Induction of members is based upon the student's maintaining a 3.0 average and also being in the top ten percent of the college's enrollment. Finally the student must be recommended by 100% of the faculty.

President—William A. Simmons
Vice President—Robert Herron
Sec.-Treas.—Dan Dockery
Sponsor—Donald Bowdle

Alpha Chi

Alpha Chi, the national honor scholarship society on the Lee compus, serves in the area of promotion and recognition of scholarship among students. Although students involved in any area of academics at the college are eligible to be chosen for recognition, membership in Alpha Chi is limited to those students in the top ten percent of the junior and senior classes. An overall G.P.A. of 3.4 is required for continuing membership.

During the fall semester Dani Allred served as president of Alpha Chi. Upon Dani's graduation in December, Mrs. Elveida Bauer filled the position of president for the spring term.

Alpha Chi was active during the year with the induction of new members in November and organizing a Spring Academics Week in April.

Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities

Students are selected to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities on the basis of their academic excellence and their contributions to and participation in all aspects of college life. Persons chosen for this honor are distinguished by their diligent, enthusiastic pursuit of life's unobtained, yet attainable goals. Colleges and universities across the nation nominate students on an enrollment-based quota.

This year the Lee College faculty selected twenty graduating seniors as Who's Who recipients. The winners can take pride in being chosen not only for outstanding academic performance, but for their well-rounded involvement, leadership ability, dependability, and other outstanding characteristics.

Vindagua Presents Ten Favorite Girls

Lee's most eagerly awaited social event, the Vindagua Parade of Favorites, played to a full house in the auditorium on March 12. Ten major campus organizations were invited by the Vindagua to present their "favorite girls" on stage that night. The two-hour show was a colorful crowd-pleaser, with each of the ten girls appearing in an informal introductory scene (set on a Parisian sidewalk), a formal evening gown scene (set in a French ballroom), and an individual talent performance.

Elaine Gurley, K'ettes, chats with Monsieur Danny Murray in the opening scene.

Representing the Ladies of Lee, Janie Johnson displayed her musical talent by singing and playing the flute.

Vickie Apperson of the Pioneers for Christ, amused the audience with a comedy skit.

VeDonna Knight, representative of Collegiate Sertoma, sang "Everything."

Cheris Morris sang "What Are You Doing the Rest of Your Life?" She represented Sigma Nu Sigma.

Veva Rose, Social Director, enjoys the reception after POF.

Karen Boatwright greeted guests and served as an usherette.

Dick Ford prepares his camera for some more shots.

Danny Murray and Bob Laughlin introduced the favorites in the opening scene.

Cathi Fox, Vindagua editor, presented Dr. Paul Conn with a plaque in appreciation for his work as sponsor and coordinator of POF.

Handsome escorts were an integral part of Parade of Favorites.

...Involves Everyone

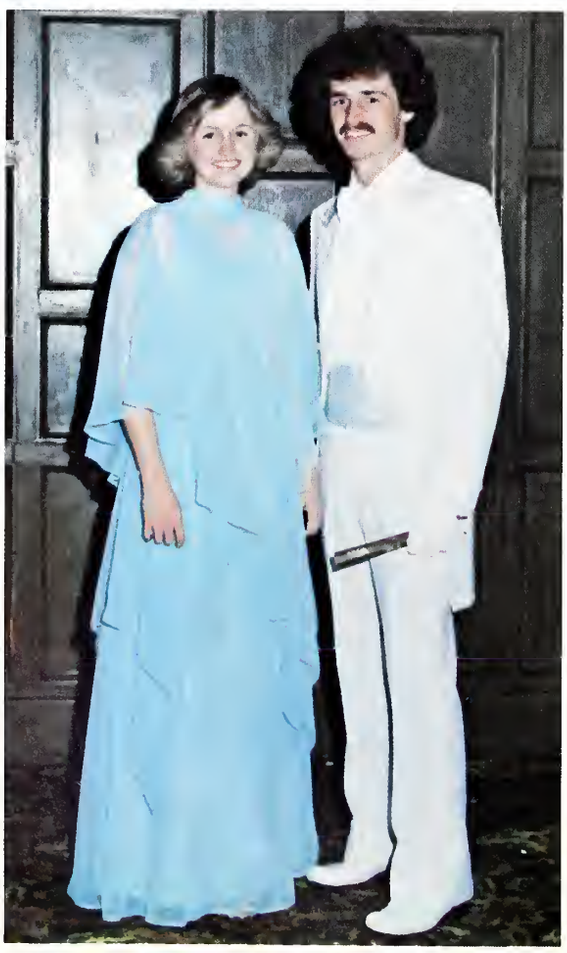
Charlie Brant and Steve Sawyer led the excellent music throughout the show.

Miss POF 1976, Diane James, presents roses to the winner.

Donna performed a skit entitled, "The Perfect Date."

Miss POF 1977

Donna Kristal Waldee, a nineteen year old sophomore from Fort Myers, Florida, was chosen Miss Parade of Favorites 1977. Donna represented the men of Upsilon Xi in the pageant. Donna, an excellent student, was also active in other campus activities. She served as the historian of Sigma Nu Sigma and is a former Lee Singer.



Donna was escorted by Ron Dotson, a sophomore from Florida.

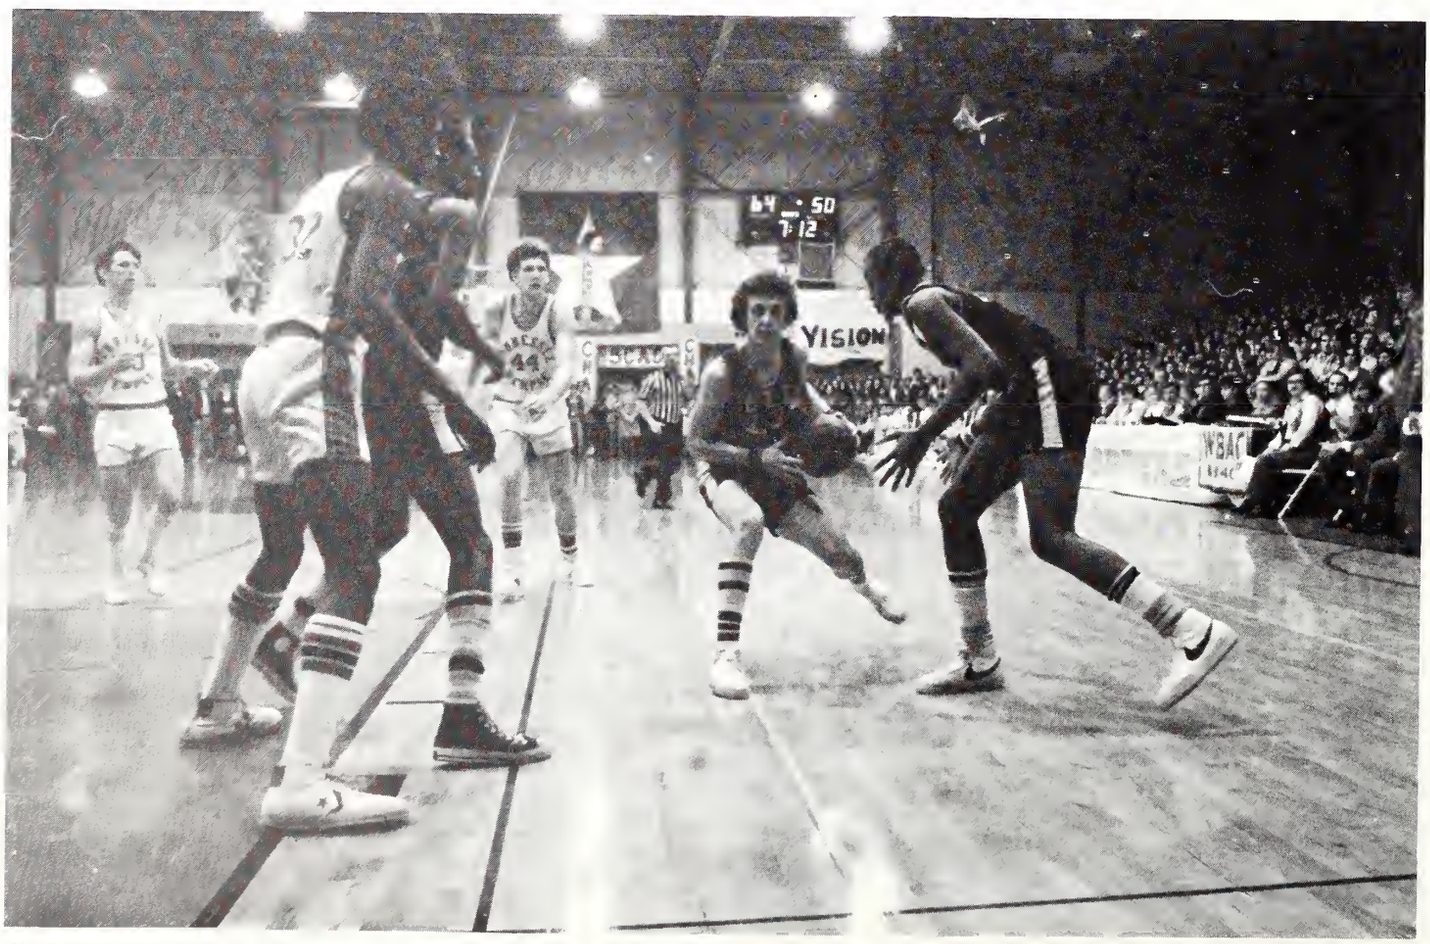
One of the big wins of the year was the win over Olivet Nazarene.

Viking

Coach Earl Rowan and the Lee Vikings experienced the pains of rebuilding years as they played to a 10-18 record during the 1976-77 season.

Assisted by Larry Carpenter, Coach Rowan led his team in some impressive victories and suffered several setbacks in "last shot" losses.

The outstanding play of Senior Co-Captain Phil Bazel who led the Lee team in scoring sparked the club to late season wins and a near upset of rival Tennessee Temple.



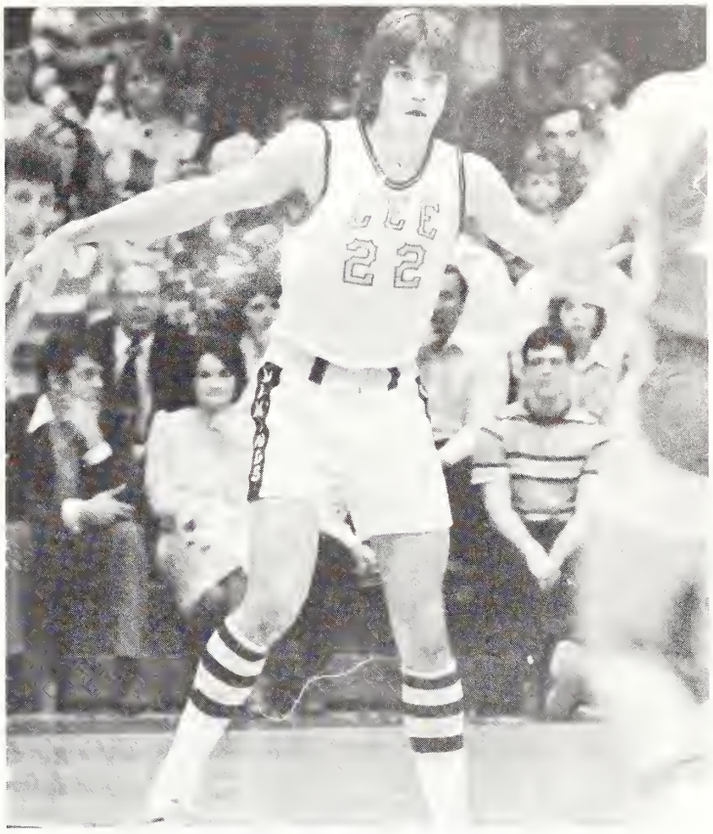
Herkley, Steele and Lattimore worked to close in on Temple.

Basketball 1976-77

Sam Herkley kept the Vikings in several games with his team-leading rebounding and sophomore David Lattimore gave the stalwart fans many thrills including an outstanding effort against Covenant where he made 15 of 19 field goal attempts.

Paul Walker, the Co-Captain guard who has started for three straight years, led the team in assists and had some outstanding games.

Sam Wills and Randy Steele shared playing time, contributing almost 300 points between them. Rocky Wilson, Keith Lewis and Voin Calhoun rounded out a fine team.



Junior guard Paul Walker served as co-captain for the 1976-77 Vikings.

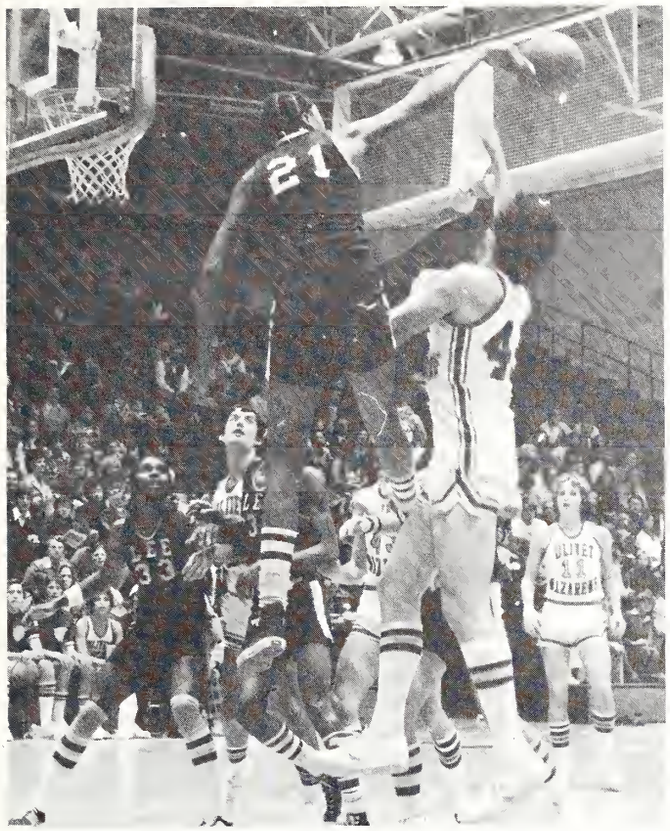
Offense

Co-Captains Paul Walker and Phil Bazel brought the Vikings close to a Temple win in February.

Forward Sam Herkley played several games with an injured back, but led the Vikings in rebounding.

Senior Phil Bazel paced the team in scoring much of the year.

Defense

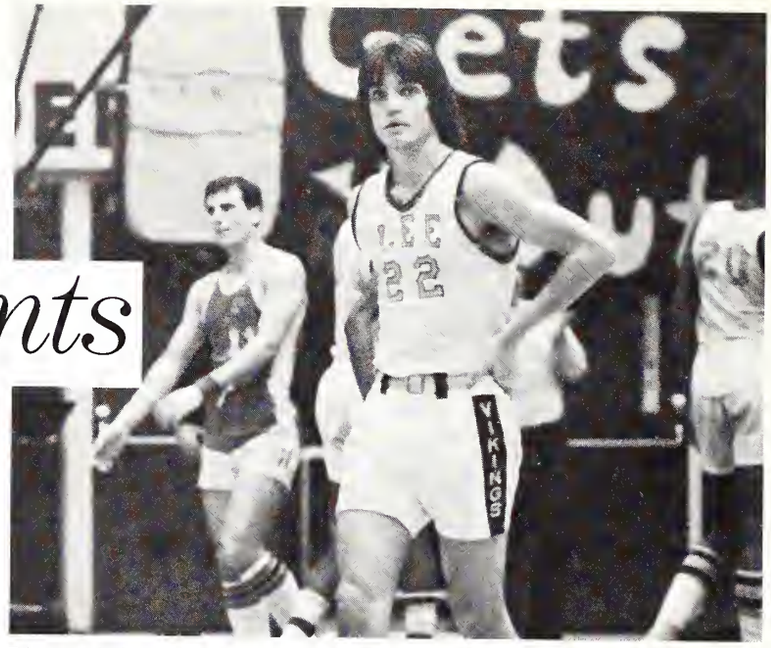


Defensive play was impressive in the win over Olivet Nazarene.

Sam Wills' quickness helped him into the starting line-up.

David Lattimore thrilled the fans with plays like this.

There Were Disappointments



Disappointment reflected on the face of Paul Walker.

Coach Rowan ponders the rough season . .

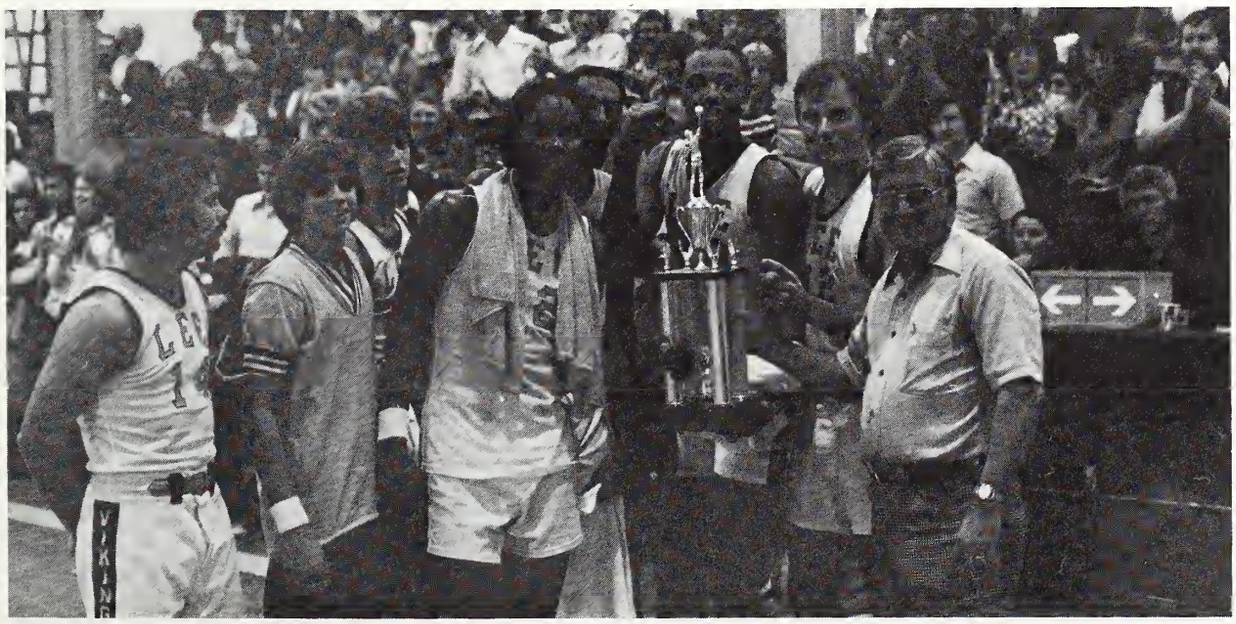
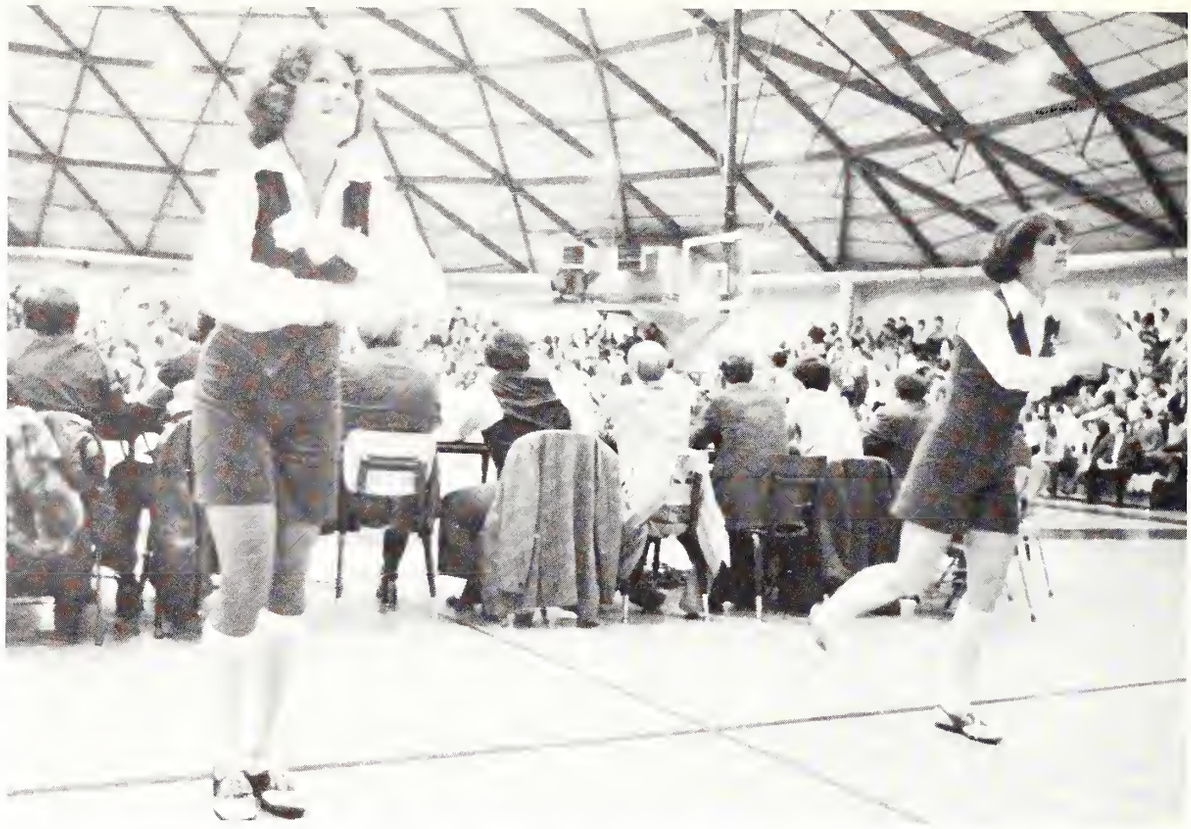
Sam Herkley played aggressively.

... and Successes



The Vikings won the Lee Invitational Tournament in November.



Darlena Hammonds and Vickie Cochran helped keep spirits high despite a February loss to Temple.

The loss to Bryan seemed to be disheartening for all.

Viking Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders received help from Adrian Walston at most games.

Co-Captain Renee Holman watches the scoreboard as time runs out.

Darlena Hammonds finds encouragement in an offensive surge.

Viking Baseball Team Registers

Keith Mills was not only one of the top pitchers in the SCAC, but delivered at the plate with powerful hits such as this one that traveled 400 feet.

Coach Earl Rowan had much to be proud of with his 1977 Viking Baseball squad. Bouncing back from several close losses in the early going, the Vikings won many tough contests to give an impressive showing.

An Easter tour of Florida gave opportunity for the Lee team to play opponents from out of the Lee District. Players such as Gary Stone, Gary Sams and Mark Williams sparked the Vikings to key wins.

Viking Lineup:

Mills 3b
Williams lf

Valcarcel 2b

Another Successful Campaign

Pitching was a strong point of the Viking game plan thanks to players like southpaw Ed Chandler.

The shortstop position was well-anchored by star hitter Larry Carpenter, seen here on the double play pivot against Temple.

Lee Cross Country Boasts

For the past few years, the Lee College Cross Country team has been one of the better teams in the entire NCCAA. Once again this year, the runners from Lee distinguished themselves by winning important meets. Notable among their victories was an early season triumph over Tennessee Temple.

Senior and Captain Greg Carter provided fine leadership and once again proved that he was one of the top long distance runners in the area.

Along with Carter, Ed Tuers and Danny Shriver excelled in several meets and showed great talent.

Greg Carter closed out a fine Cross Country career at Lee with a good season.

Highly Talented Runners

The Shriver-Tuers-Carter combo kept Lee College Cross Country high in league standings.

Randy White did many hours of roadwork in preparation for the season.

Senior Mike McMahan found early season practices to be exhausting.

1977 Tennis Team

Tennis team members found that it took long hours of hard work to become a winning team.

Dr. Marvin Taylor, head coach of the Lee Tennis Team, took a young and somewhat inexperienced group of tennis players and through the course of a season, whipped them into top shape.

The team suffered early setbacks, but diligent work and concentration helped them to give many fine showings before the summer came.

Dennis Walters and Dennis Hurst were two of Coach Taylor's best players in league and non-league play.

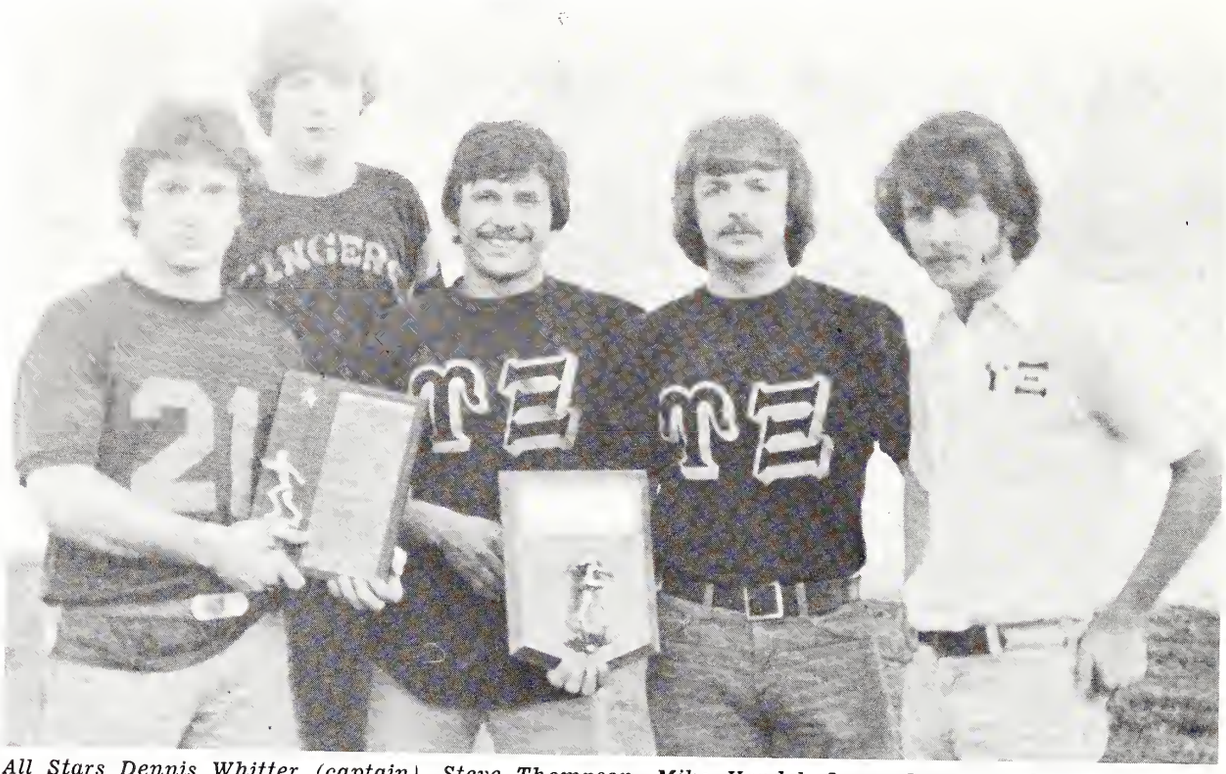
Dennis Ford's two-handed backhand stroke came in handy when he found himself under pressure.

Faced Tough Opposition

The serve must be perfect and so takes a lot of practice.

Rick Burrell of North Carolina learned to stretch and reach in order to get to shots like this one.

MCAA Provides Year-Round



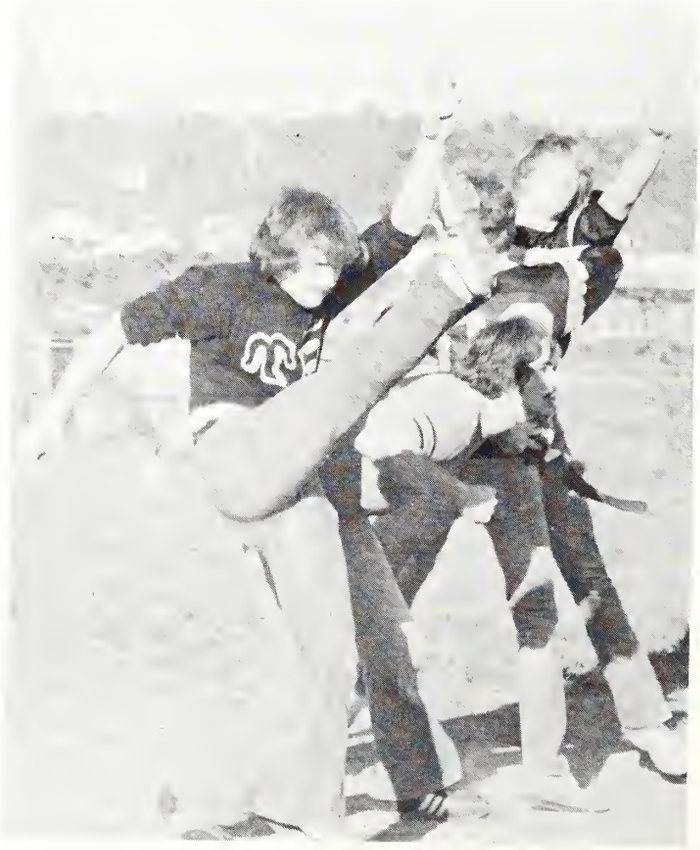
All Stars Dennis Whitter (captain), Steve Thompson, Mike Hendel, Larry Lowry, and Keith Merchant helped in the Optimist Bowl victory.

The Men's Christian Athletic Association is the largest club on the Lee Campus. In 1976-77 over 300 male students participated in the intramural program.

MCAA President Dennis Whitter, and Intramural director Ken Walston worked together to upgrade the organization of the men's leagues.

The MCAA sponsored a September back to school softball tournament which was won by the Alumni team. Throughout the year, tournaments in various sports kept enthusiasm at a high pitch.

All-star games, championship playoffs and trophies were only a small portion of the work of MCAA members.



Larry Lowry was an all-star selection at cornerback for four years.

Athletic Opportunities

Basketball was one important part of the late night schedule at Lee during the winter months.

Charlie Ford from Georgia and Jimmy Coffelt of Alabama spent spring afternoons playing MCAA softball.

Intramural sports such as basketball also allowed alumni of Lee to participate.

Sam Wills was one of the many intramural officials provided by MCAA.

Intramural Football Dominated by Upsilon

Upsilon Xi won the intramural crown for the second time in two years. The 5 team intramural league spent the fall months battling for the title. Quarterback Rusty Creel led the Upsilon team to key wins over Singers, Alumni and Freshmen and then met VINDAGUA in the playoff finals.

Upsilon's only loss was against VINDAGUA in the first game of the year.

Chip Pace quarterbacked the Vindagua team to within one point with seconds remaining, but at the final gun, it was Upsilon who gained the championship.

Tim Hamm's kickoff and defensive play helped the Singers to a winning season.

Tight defense by Delwyn Smith caused this pass to Steve Thompson to drop incomplete.

Steve Thompson races against Randy Higgenbotham en route to his 3rd touchdown.

Mike Wheat led the blocking on this end run by Don Worley.

Keith Merchant made the All Star team at halfback for Upsilon.

Junior Steve Madison turned this carry into a long touchdown run.

VINDAGUA lost in the finals to Upsilon by one touchdown.

Intramural Basketball Competition Was Tough

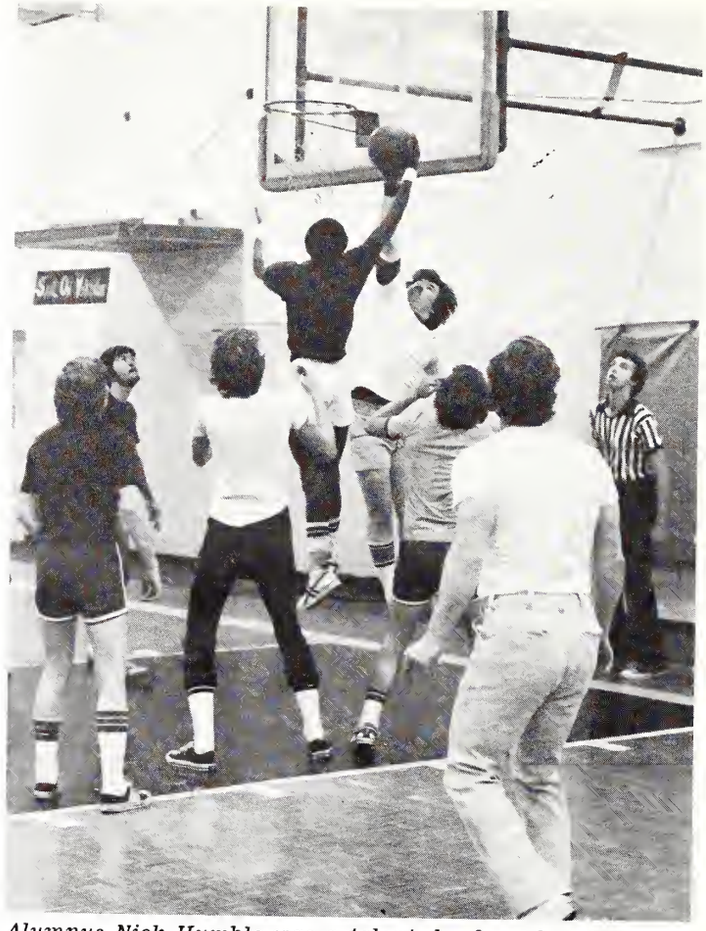
Under the guiding of Intramural Director Ken Walston, the men of Lee College enjoyed a winter of fine quality basketball.

Teams representing various clubs on campus, the faculty, staff and even alumni met almost nightly in the Lee gym for the league games and finally the playoffs.

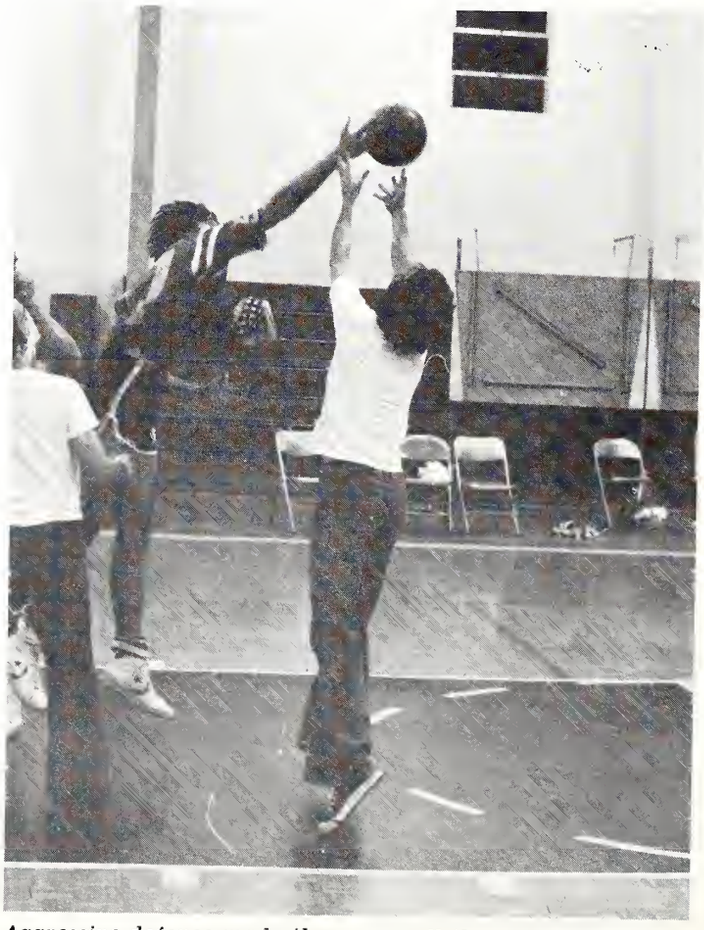
In the championship game, the Faculty-Staff team, with much help from assistant basketball coach Larry Carpenter, walked away with the trophy.

Talent in the MCAA basketball league was such that several of the players were chosen to play with the Lee Junior Varsity team on several occasions.

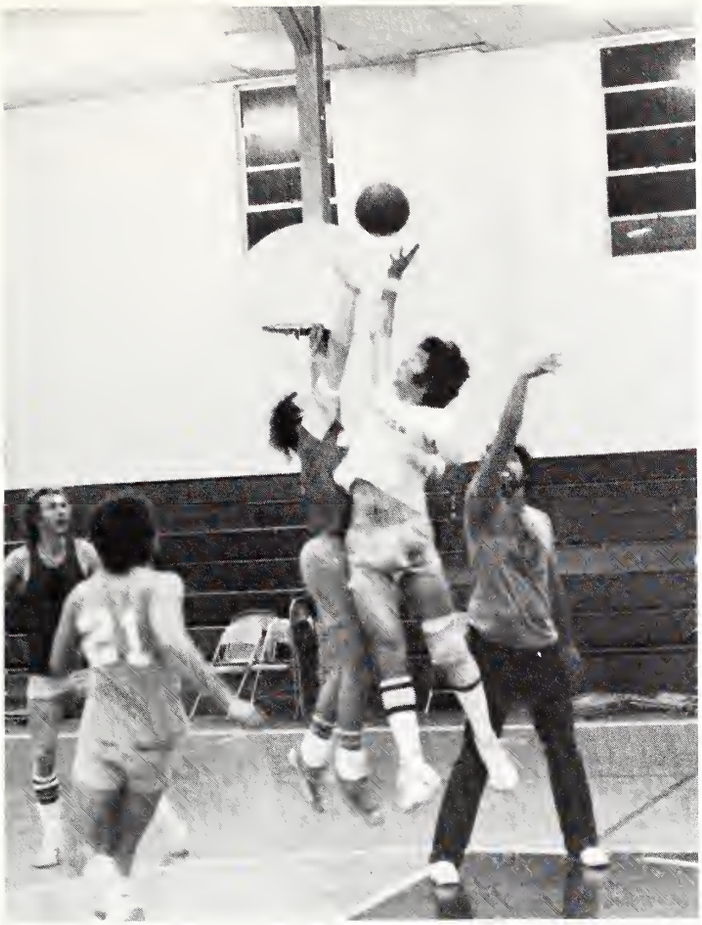
Some of the more outstanding players were Tom Madden, Joe Mango, Danny Moore and Steve Madison.



Alumnus Nick Humble was a talented rebounder as seen in this early season game.



Aggressive defense made the games all the more exciting.



Joe Mango overcame knee problems to finish among the top scorers in MCAA basketball.

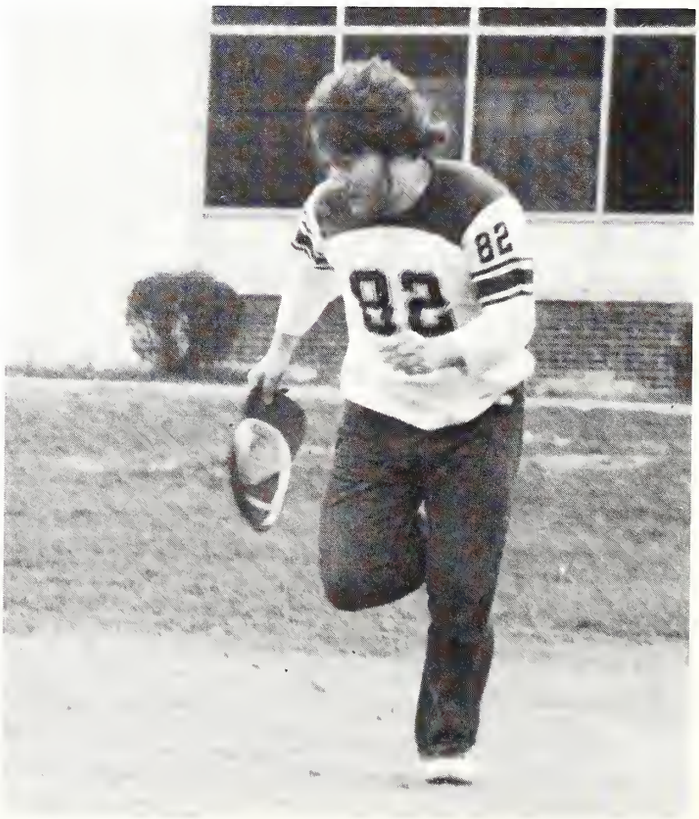
Former Viking star Danny Moore dominated several games with his shooting and rebounding abilities.

Chess Club and the Faculty-Staff team start their play-off game with the traditional center jump.

MCAA Softball Featured

A back-to-school softball tournament helped many newcomers get acquainted with other students.

During the first week of school, the MCAA sponsored a softball tournament for interested teams. Throughout the week, teams battled, and one by one were eliminated. In the championship game, it was DHD versus the Alumni team. In a three game series, the Alumni team was victorius and claimed the tournament title.



Harold Franks, better known for his All-Star football abilities, clutches his cap while heading for third base.

Talented Players and Teams

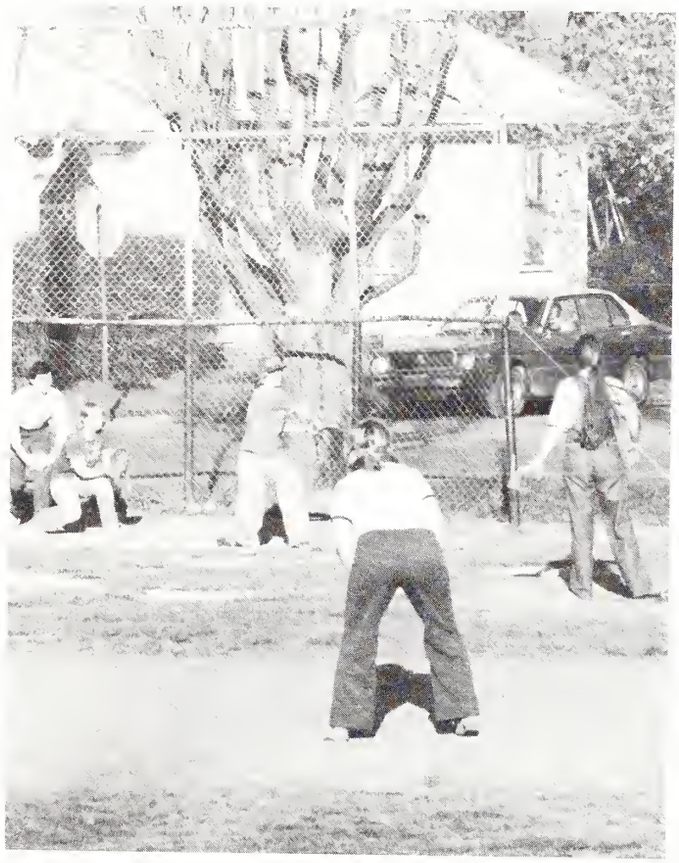
Jimmy Coffelt comes in to bat and Flay Burroughs heads for the field after the third out.

In the spring regular season, there were several fine teams. The North Carolina All-Stars led by Tommy Madden and Rocky Wilson highlighted the season along with Upsilon, the Sixers, Rotaract, Freshmen, Chi and others.

A vote by representatives from each team selected an all-star team which invited outside teams to play in exhibition games. The season did not end until the last week of school when the championship was decided by a three game tournament between two top teams.

The Intramural softball championship was not decided until the tournament during the last week of school.

Women's Christian



Three girl's teams competed for awards in softball competition during the last weeks of the spring semester.

Jan Woodard was the number one pitcher for Delta Zeta Tau in WCAA softball.

The batter, Cindy Futral, from Huntsville, Alabama was one of the more versatile WCAA athletes.

Athletic Association

Lee College hosted several girl's intercollegiate games in the winter months, including this close contest.

Many ladies at Lee participated with great effort and enthusiasm in the 1976-77 WCAA program. From flag football where the Upperclassmen team was victorious to softball in the spring, where the rivalries were even greater, the ladies showed that they hold athletics in high esteem.

For the first time ever, Lee College had an intercollegiate girl's basketball team. A brief schedule allowed the girls to gain valuable experience for future seasons.

Carol Bennick, the WCAA President provided great leadership for an eager group of women athletes.

in Christian Service

In their usual tradition Pioneers for Christ made vast contributions to the spiritual atmosphere of Lee College. Throughout the year they traveled thousands of miles spreading the Word of God. This year, in addition to visits to local convalescent homes, jails and hospitals, they enjoyed a Christmas banquet in December and an Awards banquet in April.

Missions Club Emphasized Witnessing

The members of the Missions Club seek to promote missions throughout the world and to keep Christians aware of the urgency of furthering the kingdom of God. In an effort to raise funds for World Missions the organization sponsors annually a Walkathon. This year they sponsored a film festival and a series of seminars.

Church missions leaders shared their enthusiasm and experience.

Members listened intently to the proceedings of a meeting.

Christian Service Promoted by Tact

Danny Lloyd participated in a TACT service project.

T.A.C.T. is organized to provide voluntary Christian service for Lee College students who are interested in the field of Christian Education. During the 1976-77 academic year members held over fifteen weekend seminars and conducted twenty workshops. They have plans for a special summer seminar to the mission states of the Church of God.

Members demonstrated the purposes and goals of the organization.

Lee Singers Display

The choir participated in a community youth rally.

In their fifteenth year of activity, the Lee Singers maintained their traditionally active schedule. Dr. Delton Alford, founder of the choir, continued in his capacity as conductor and coordinator. Assisting Dr. Alford was Danny Murray. Included in their performances this year were a tour of Europe, several tours in the United States, two appearances with the Chattanooga Symphony Orchestra, and appearances in conventions, churches, and schools. In September 1976, they were presented at Royal Albert Hall in London. The Singers were also the featured group in both the Fall and Spring Musicales here at Lee College.

Singers Second Edition also kept a fast pace this year.

Musical Excellence

At the Fall Festival many Homecoming guests came to enjoy an evening of good music.

An instrumental ensemble was added to the group, adding to the quality of the entire choir.

The Singers exhibited versatility in their performances.

Ladies of Lee Make Plans...

Fall Festival always includes the Ladies of Lee.

The Ladies of Lee have been representing the Lord and Lee College for well over a decade. Each year has held some special treat. This one is no exception. After such an active year—tours to Florida, northeastern states, and military bases, to name only a few—the Ladies are eagerly anticipating a summer tour to Hawaii. Shalom, a small ensemble from Ladies, also kept an active schedule in addition to that of the choir as a whole.

The choir visited Fort Knox in the spring.

Roosevelt Miller is a dedicated director.

Campus Choir Develops Musically

The Campus Choir, directed by Dr. David Horton, is the largest musical performing group on campus. It is composed of students from all major areas of study and is not limited by audition.

The choir does not tour, but rather directs its abilities toward performances on campus. One of their major performances this year was the production of Honnegar's "King David," complete with instrumentation and visuals.

The choir backs up Janice Attaway in a solo spot.

This year the Evangelistic Singers were recognized as an official campus performing organization. Their director was James Paige. They enjoyed many musical experiences this year touring in Florida, singing in area churches, and contributing to chapel worship.

Evangelistic Singers Become More Actively Involved

Evangelistic Singers were a vital part of many chapel services.

Lee Band Has New Conductor

The Lee Band and the Lee Players were under the direction of Sonny Chambley. Mr. Chambley has worked diligently with the Lee Band to prepare them for performances. The band involves many students with instrumental abilities and talents. One band member, Charles Brant, a trombonist, was the recipient of the award given by the Department of Music and Fine Arts to the department's outstanding graduating senior.

Menc Involves Music Majors

This year's members of the Music Educators' National Conference concerned themselves with planning and attending Music workshops. They also entertained outstanding guest speakers that addressed the group concerning current trends in music and other topics of interest. MENC also hosted a Faculty/Student Talent Show.

This year's officers were Nancy Neal, president, and Kathy Mobley, secretary.

Nancy Neal served as the president of MENC during the 1976-77 school term.

NACM Chapter Sees First Year

The 1976-77 school term was the first year of activity for Lee's NACM student chapter. The club's activities this year included music reading sessions, choral clinics in local churches and the introduction of a new convention book. NACM also hosted a guest appearance by Rick Powell.

Charles Brant served as the chapter's president and Johnny Bunn was the vice president.

Alpha Gamma Chi

Alpha Gamma Chi, whose purpose is to promote Christian fellowship for men from various aspects of campus life, provided many activities for students at Lee this year. The first event was Freshman Week with a watermelon bust and pie auction. The club sponsored many skating parties and the annual Chi Riverboat Cruise on the Tennessee River. They co-sponsored the Campus Valentine Banquet.

The men of Alpha Gamma Chi also made a week-end invasion to Alabama and went on various retreats and campouts. The president for this school term was senior Dennis Whitter.

Sigma Nu Sigma Stays Busy

The 1976-77 academic year was a busy one for the ladies of Sigma Nu Sigma. Following a party in September for all the new freshmen girls and transfer students, the club kept up its active pace by initiating a new campus event, the Gong Show. The annual Fall Fashion Show turned out to be one of the most successful in the history of the organization. During the Christmas season, the entire campus joined Sigma in collecting gifts and sponsoring a party for the Melisha Gibson Home for Children. A Hawaiian Luau in March came off beautifully despite the chilly weather. To top off a super year, the ladies sponsored a concert with a group called Daybreak.

They also sponsored a film, "Thief in the Night," and were avid supporters of the Lee Vikings.

Rotaract Was Versatile and Involved

Derby Day was a highlight of the year.

The Guess What performed in Sigma's Gong Show.

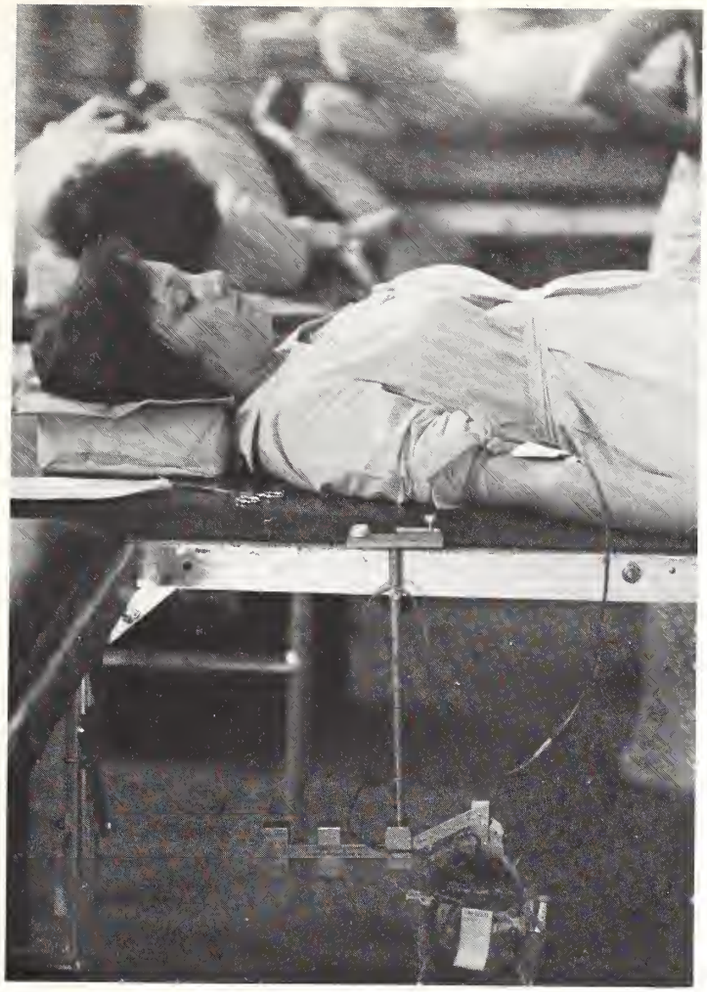
The men of Rotaract tapped Debbie Wooden as their Sweetheart.

Pat Dunn represented Rotaract II at Sigma's Gong Show.

Rotaract II Enjoy an Active Year

Rotaract II, in its third year as a campus organization, was officially recognized and received its charter from Rotary International in the fall of 1976. Members served the community by collecting for the Heart Fund, March of Dimes, and food baskets at Easter. The ladies assisted Rotaract in the planning of Derby Day and the Marathon Crawl. They also helped to make BROCCOLI Day a success.

Barbara McKinnon served as the president of Rotaract II.



The American Red Cross Bloodmobile was sponsored by K'ettes.

In cooperation with the local Kiwanis Club, K'ettes participated in a number of services to both Lee College and the city of Cleveland. The organization donated gifts to the Melisha Gibson Home for Children in a project sponsored by Sigma. An annual project for K'ettes is to bring the American Red Cross Bloodmobile to campus.

K'ettes Served Campus and Community

K'ettes support Lee Vikings at a Homecoming booth.

Phi Beta Lambda Emphasizes Business

Phi Beta Lambda seeks to develop professional and social interests of students preparing for careers in commerce. An annual project of the club is assisting the business faculty in coordinating Lee College Day. Throughout the year the club hosted guest speakers including some prominent businessmen in the Cleveland area.

Margaret McGlasson (president) talks with Dr. Rowe.

Student Teachers Guided by S.N.E.A.

Student National Educators Association is a professional club for student teachers. All education and social science majors are represented by S.N.E.A. The organization recognizes the pursuit of truth, devotion to excellence and the nurture of democratic citizenship.

Wilma Kennedy discusses S.N.E.A. with Homecoming visitors.

Math Club Excels Academically

Math Club's Homecoming booth was a moneymaking project.

The Math club, which represents the math majors on campus, was active in campus events this year. Their booth on Homecoming Day was one of the most successful moneymaking projects. Chris Holdridge, chosen for Who's Who this year, was the president.

Phi Sigma Alpha Serves Campus

Karen Hanks served as the president of Phi Sigma Alpha this year.

Phi Sigma Alpha is a professional organization for Secretarial Science majors. The club is a chapter of the Future Secretaries Association sponsored by the Cherokee Chapter of the National Secretaries Association.

Phi Sigma Alpha members serve the campus by organizing registration for Homecoming and Lee College Day.

Young Democrats Watch Victory

The purpose of the Young Democrat Club is to serve as a representative of the Democratic party to the student body. The club hosted a viewing of the Presidential Debates and had a registration drive, registering 348 students.

Dr. Lee, sponsor of the Young Democrats, and the students watch the Presidential Debates.

Art Guild Includes Art Majors

The Art Guild involves art majors on campus. Members meet to work on projects and plan to bring art exhibitions to the campus. John Simmons is the faculty sponsor.

Student, Danielle Collier, appreciates a sculpture in the art gallery.

Student Government Association

Representatives attend an important meeting.

Robert Perry served as president for the 1976-77 school term.

This year the representatives of SGA hosted old movies in the auditorium for students. They also gave a campus-wide Christmas Party. The president of Student Government Association for this year was Robert Perry. Steve Dorman served as vice president and Dani Allred was the secretary-treasurer.

Sharing Is the Key to the International Club

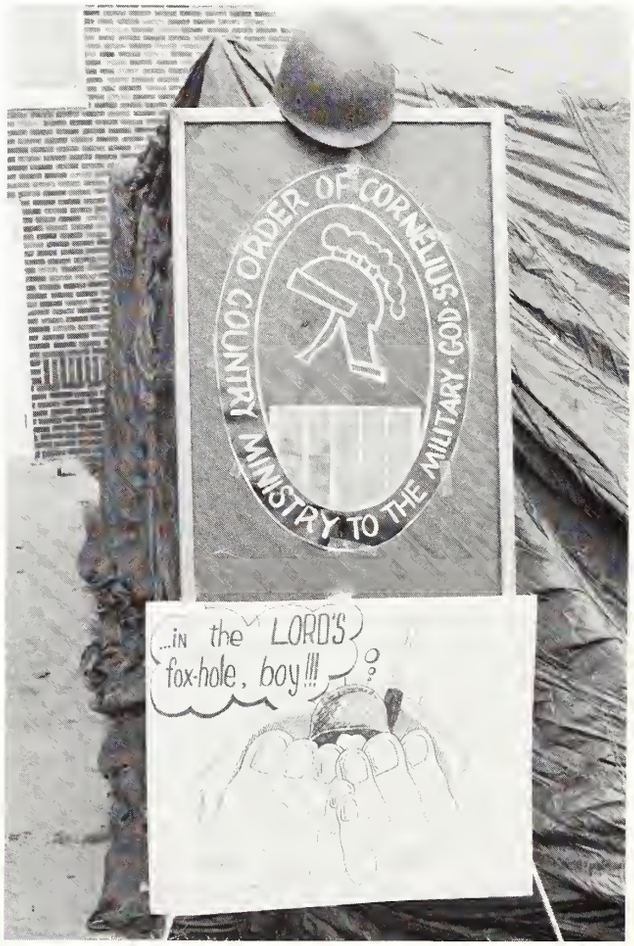
The International Club strives to promote social and Christian relationships on an international level, and to help foreign students develop a concept of American cultural life in relationship to others. Members include students from Egypt, Viet Nam, the Bahama Islands, Indonesia, Guatemala, and India. This year the group sponsored a Fellowship Service with a special guest choir from Washington, D.C.

A Homecoming booth exhibited articles from various cultures.

Order of Cornelius

At the Home for Children in Sevierville, others joined the men in sponsoring a Christmas party.

As the veterans club of Lee College, the Order of Cornelius has a two-fold ministry. On campus, it strives to assist veterans to readjust to civilian and college life. Off campus, evangelism teams visit U. S. military installations. One ministry the club undertook this year was to sponsor a Christmas party for the Home for Children in Sevierville.



Christian military service is emphasized by the Order of Cornelius.

Sertoma Receives Charter

President Mike McMahan and officers Ed Miller, Jo Hamilton, Wanda Landreth and Tim Griffis receive their charter from Sertoma International.

Members congratulate each other after the kick-off banquet in January.

Collegiate Sertoma, a co-ed service club newly formed this year, has left a lasting impression. At a kick off banquet in January, sponsored in co-operation with the Cleveland Chapter of Sertoma, the club raised hundreds of dollars in donations to be placed in a scholarship fund. Another project undertaken was to open the student book exchange.

Miss VeDonna Knight represented the club in VINDAGUA'S Parade of Favorites and was chosen as the second runner-up.

The Clarion Kept Us Informed

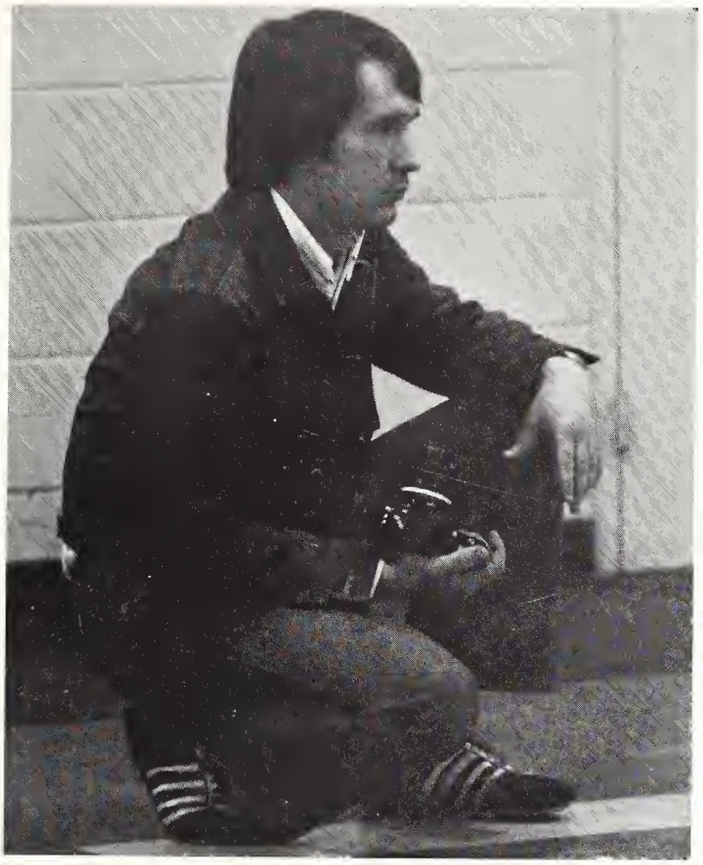
Editor Sheila Valcarcel proofs the layouts with her staff.

The CLARION, as the official newspaper of Lee College, seeks to keep the sudent body up to date on campus, community, and national concerns.

During the fall of 1976, Dani Allred acted as the editor. After her graduation in December, Sheila Valcarcel undertook the editorship and successfully released 2 editions during the 1977 Spring Semester.

Diane Chavis and Sheila Valcarcel work hard to meet a deadline.

Vindagua Photographers Capture It on Film...



David Rathbone, Director of Photography

The VINDAGUA photography staff, directed by David Rathbone, worked throughout the 1976-77 school term to provide the staff with excellent photographs of the people and events of the campus. David also served as business manager of the VINDAGUA.

Many students contributed their photographs to the VINDAGUA. They included Steve Rathbone, Marlon Rampy, Jamey Camak, Tony Jones, Jim Foster, Mark Odom, and Tom Sells. Also many photographs by Dick Ford of Fordphoto and Jim Price of Jim Price Studios were used.

CATHI FOX
Editor in chief

The VINDAGUA staff, whose purpose is to produce the yearbook, worked diligently during the school term to bring the 1977 VINDAGUA into existence. Cathi Fox filled the position of editor in chief this year. Section editors were Steve Bates, Cindy Baugh, Karen Combs, Darlena Hammonds and Dennis Whitter. David Rathbone was the director of photography and business manager for the VINDAGUA. Dr. Paul Conn served as the faculty sponsor.

The VINDAGUA'S annual Parade of Favorites was an overwhelming success this year. Ten clubs were represented in the pageant that was viewed by a full house in the Lee Auditorium. Those contributing to the success of POF, other than staff members, were Bruce Conn, Danny Murray and Veva Rose.

Other important contributors to the 1977 VINDAGUA were Bob Chord, Ron Dotson and Dick Ford.

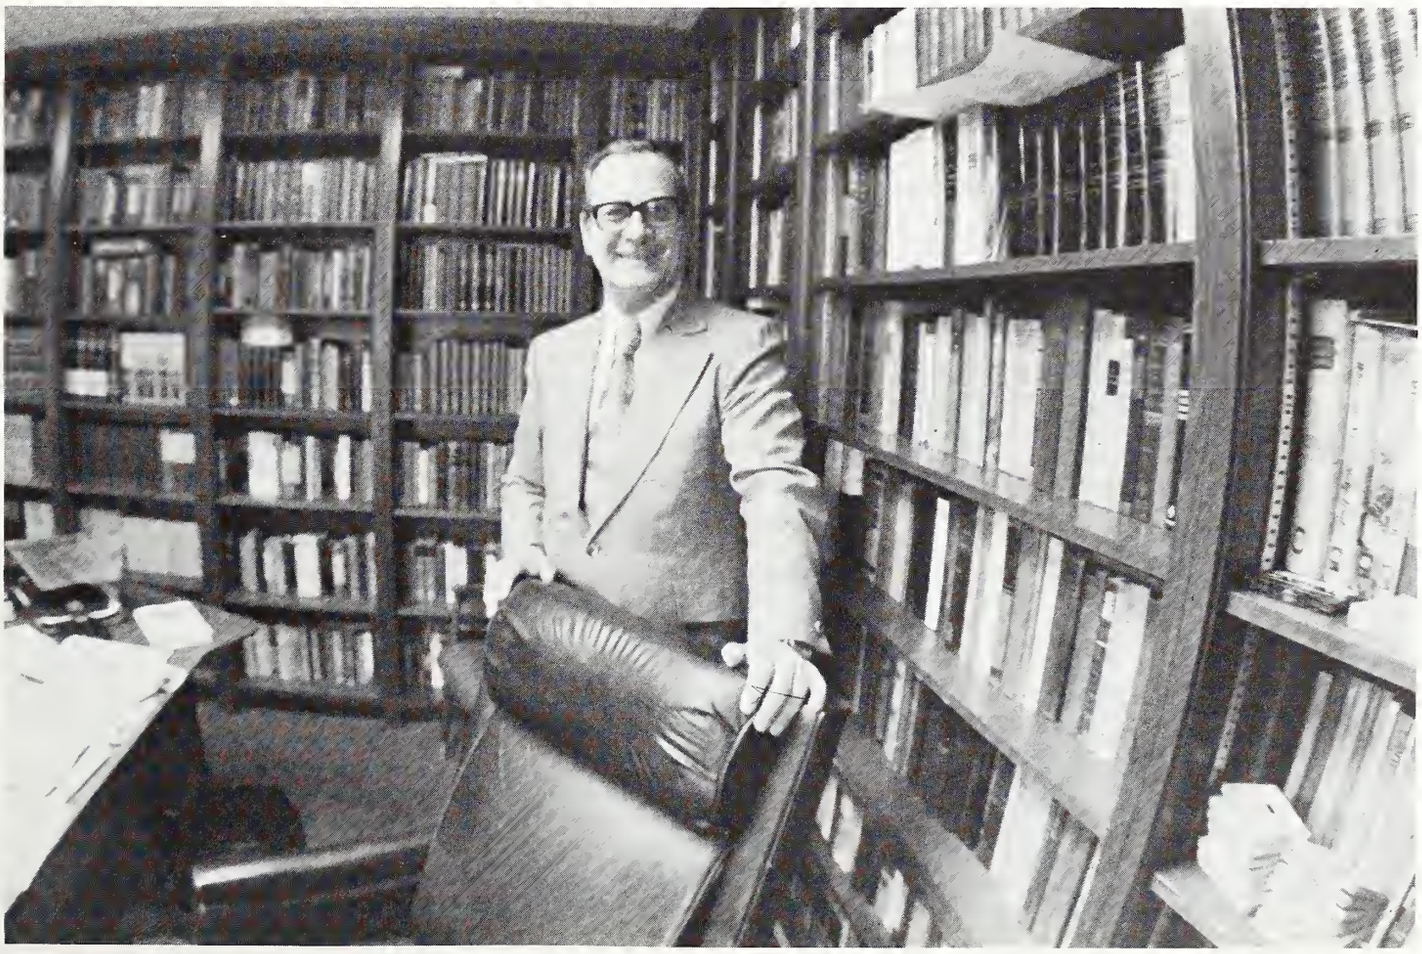
President Charles W. Conn

Dr. Charles W. Conn, now in his seventh year on the job, has served longer as President of Lee College than any other chief executive except one. He is actively involved in every aspect of the school's operation, and represents the school personally on the Executive Council of the Church of God.

Apart from his role as college president, Dr. Conn is well-known as a writer, having authored many books during his twenty-plus years as a denominational leader. His most recent project is a revision of Like a Mighty Army, a highly acclaimed church history originally published by Pathway Press in 1955. The updated work is scheduled for release in the summer of 1977.

A resident of Cleveland for almost thirty years, President Conn has figured prominently in the growing respect which the college enjoys in the local community.



Dean of the College

Dr. Delton L. Alford serves as Dean of the College at Lee, the school's highest academic position.

Dr. Alford, who also directs the Lee Singers, came to Lee as a faculty member in 1962, and has been a department chairman and division dean before reaching his present post in 1975.

As chief academic officer of the college, Alford chairs the academic council, college council, and curriculum committee, plans and directs faculty seminars, and supervises the work of division deans and department chairmen.

Board of Directors

The Lee College Board of Directors meets quarterly on the Lee campus to make policy and direct the progress of the school. The Board is elected biennially by the Executive Committee of the Church of God, and has the responsibility of nominating the president and administrative officers of the college.

Chairman of the Board during this school year has been the Reverend Ralph E. Williams. Reverend Williams has a record of distinguished leadership in the Church of God, has served on the Executive Committee of the denomination, and last year was honored by the dedication of the VINDAGUA.

Other "veteran" members of the board this year include Clifford V. Bridges, Bill Higginbotham, Paul L. Walker, H. W. Babb, Fred P. Hamilton. Several new board members began terms in the fall of 1976. They are Paul Barker, Elton Chalk, Robert Daugherty, E. C. Thomas, Richard Tyler, and Cleo Watts.

The Administrative Council is an advisory body chaired by the President of the College which considers issues and advises with the president on all matters of school policy which he brings to them, ranging from questions about the student code to consideration of the school's general financial structure.

All members of the academic council serve on the administrative council. These officers include Delton Alford (Dean of the College), Stanley Butler (Dean of Admissions and Records), and the three deans of divisions, Donald Bowdle, Jim Bilbo, and Al Hartgraves. Other members of the council are David Painter (Director of Financial Affairs), Paul Duncan (Dean of Students), and Wayne Chambers (Director of Development.)

Irwin Visits Lee Campus

Colonel James B. Irwin, Apollo 15 lunar module pilot, was the guest of Lee College during the Bible-Science Symposium sponsored by the Department of Natural Science and the Division of Religion. The campus hosted twelve other distinguished scholars who addressed themselves to the topic of "the Theological Implications of Science."

Also speaking in the seminar, held in March, were Lee professors Dr. John Sims, Associate Professor of Religion and History, and Dr. Ollie J. Lee. Professor of Sociology and Chairman of the Department of Behavioral and Social Sciences.

Colonel Irwin chats with Edna Conn after addressing the faculty and students.

Colonel Irwin is presently the Chairman of the Board of the High Flight Foundation, an organization of Christian Astronauts.

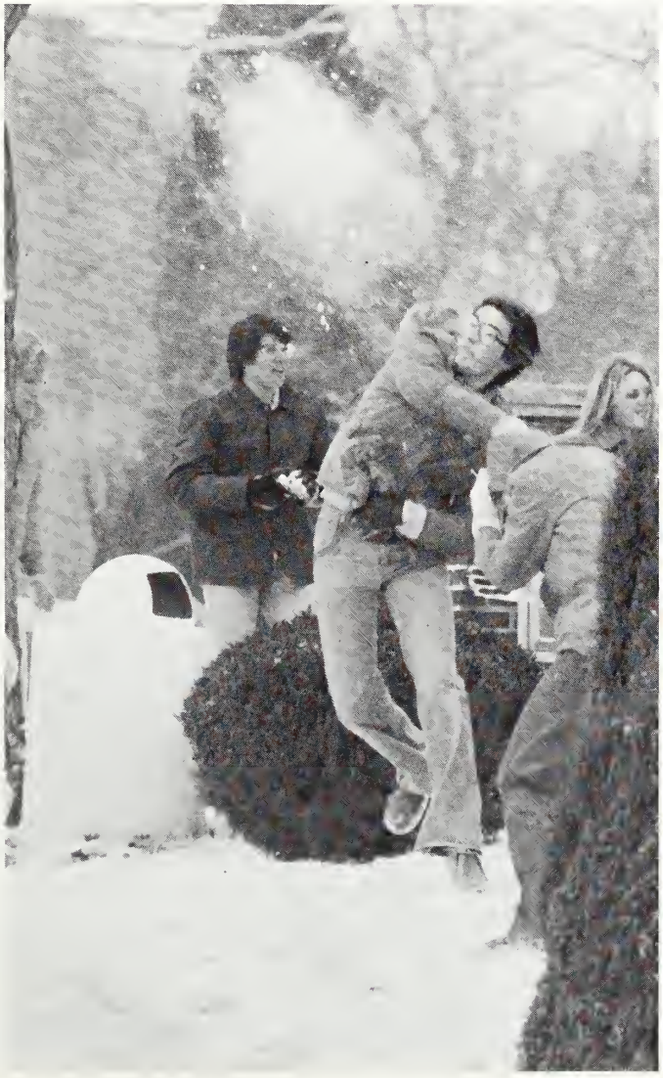
Conclusion

Lee College 1977...



The 1977 VINDAGUA. It is a permanent record of a year that we spent together as a special group of people—the Lee College community. The year is gone now but this book remains as a tribute to the relationships we formed, the knowledge we gained and all varied experiences we shared.

The 1977 VINDAGUA. It represents the combined efforts of a few dedicated and very talented people. I would like to express my appreciation to Joe Smith and the Church of God Publishing House for production of the book. To Dr. Charles Paul Conn, I extend my thanks for his helpfulness. I could not be overly thankful to the five section editors who worked with me many late nights and saw that each deadline was met. David Rathbone and his staff, and Dick Ford deserve much credit for the excellent photography and their diligence in providing the photographs.

The 1977 VINDAGUA. It would not even be necessary to have this book were it not for the students of Lee College. My deepest appreciation is expressed to all of those whose pictures appear in this volume. It is my sincere hope that the 1977 VINDAGUA will be a significant part of your memories of a special year of your life.
